Choral singers are invited to take part in this very enjoyable, but intensive weekend (following last season's highly successful Come & Sing Mozart's Requiem event). All voices are welcome. Ticket price includes music hire, etc. The workshop weekend will culminate in a full performance of the Vespers, accompanied on period instruments. We will once again be inviting young professional singers to take the solo roles.

The Small Print! – Please note: All participants must book in advance in order for us to balance numbers in choir parts & ensure we can provide music, light refreshments, etc for all. Early booking is advised. Music copies will be provided (we are using the King's Music version edited by Clifford Bartlett). Please indicate if you have your own copy of this. Music can be sent to you in advance if you include the cost of deposit & postage (as indicated on the application form).

Please complete and return booking form asap or by 1st March 2008 at the latest
